

29a Canonbury Grove Dulwich Hill NSW

4 2

Quality contemporary additions seamlessly connecting the old with the new have enhanced the timeless appeal of this Federation residence. The second storey bathes in sunlight with a tranquil open outlook with views from both levels.

Built in 1910, the original front of the home features soaring 3.4m ceilings and original fireplaces, while the contemporary open plan living pavilion is wrapped in an inviting deck offering an easy indoor/outdoor flow.

Set in Dulwich Hills best tree-lined street, it's a short walk to all the attractions on Marrickville Road, Dulwich Hill station, light-rail (500m) and public school

Land Size : 302 sqm
